

Approved For Release 2004/05/12 : CIA-RDP79M00098A000100010001-9

Contents

	Page
I. Origin of the United States Intelligence Board.....	1
A. The Joint Intelligence Committee in World War II.....	3
B. The Evolution of the Intelligence Advisory Committee.....	9
C. Compartmented Coordination in the U. S. Communications Intelligence Board.....	1
D. Forced Consolidation into the United States Intelligence Board.....	1
II. Development of the United States Intelligence Board Under President Eisenhower, 15 September 1958-20 January 1961.....	1
A. Types of USIB Agenda Items.....	4
B. USIB Minutes.....	8
C. Watch Committee Reports.....	9
D. Review of Sensitive Situations.....	17
E. USIB Committee Report.....	19
F. National Intelligence Estimates and Related Agenda Items.....	30
G. Other Agenda Items.....	50
H. COMINT and ELINT Committee Reports to USIB.....	67

Approved For Release 2004/05/12 : CIA-RDP79M00098A000100010001-9

	Page
I. Guided Missile and Astronautics Committee Reports to USIB.....	118
J. Reports to USIB by the Critical Collection Problems Committee.....	129
K. Joint Atomic Energy Intelligence Committee Reports to USIB.....	140
L. Security Committee Reports to USIB.....	145
M. Reports to USIB by the Satellite Intelligence Requirements Commit- tee and the Committee on Overhead Reconnaissance.....	150
N. Other USIB Committee Reports.....	164
O. Procedures and Secretariat of the USIB.....	175
P. Summary of USIB Annual Reports to the NSC.....	186
Q. Joint Study Group Report on Foreign Intelligence Activities.....	195
III. Growth and Crises Face the USIB Under President Kennedy, 21 January 1961-22 November 1963.....	1
A. Allen Dulles Continued as DCI during Ten Month Period of Transition.....	1
B. Reorganization of the USIB Structure under Strengthened DCI Authority.....	68

C.	Overhead Reconnaissance Comes of Age.....	87
D.	USIB Passes Its Test in the Cuban Crisis.....	133
E.	USIB Has a Limited Role in Program Evaluation.....	161
F.	Committee Reports to USIB Concentrate on Intelligence Requirements and Priorities.....	180
G.	The Soviet Missile Threat Remains a Top Priority National Intelligence Problem.....	236
IV.	Increased and Varied Intelligence Needs in Support of President Johnson, 23 November 1963-28 April 1965.....	1
A.	Further Reorganization and Heavy Workload for USIB.....	1
B.	Vietnam Becomes Major Preoccupation.....	78
C.	Improved Basis for Estimating Soviet Military Capabilities.....	143
D.	Communist China is Difficult but Critical Intelligence Target.....	183
E.	Heavy Intelligence Demands Versus Limited Resources.....	217

Approved For Release 2004/05/12 : CIA-RDP79M00098A000100010001-9

Appendix

Source References

Attachments

- A. Directives under the National Intelligence Authority
  - 1. NIA Directive No. 1, 8 Feb 46
  - 2. CIG Administrative Order No. 2,
18 Feb 46
  - 3. NIA Directive No. 5, 8 Jul 46
  - 4. Memo, DCI for NIA Members,
sub: National Security Act of 1947,
11 Sep 47
- B. Initial National Security Council Directive to the Central Intelligence Agency
  - 1. Memo, DCI for Former IAB Members,
9 Oct 47
  - 2. Memo, DCI for Former IAB Members,
10 Oct 47
- C. National Security Council Intelligence Directives
No. 1, dated:
  - 1. 12 Dec 47
  - 2. 7 Jul 49
  - 3. 19 Jan 50
  - 4. 28 Mar 52
  - 5. 21 Apr 58
  - 6. 15 Sept 58 (established USIB)
  - 7. 18 Jan 61
  - 8. 4 Mar 64

Approved For Release 2004/05/12 : CIA-RDP79M00098A000100010001-9

25X1

Approved For Release 2004/05/12 : CIA-RDP79M00098A000100010001-9

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2004/05/12 : CIA-RDP79M00098A000100010001-9